Both the West German Chancellor, Dr Konrad Adenauer, and the Socialist Opposition leader, Dr Kurt Schumacher, today agreed that only a speedy increase in American occupation forces in Germany could decisively strengthen Western European defences.

They both said that a remilitarisation of Germany or the raising of a stronger police force alone would not solve the German security problem.

Emil Zatopek, the Czech Olympic Champion, broke his own official world record in winning the 10,000 metres in 29. mins. 12 secs. on the opening day of the European Athletics Championships at the Heysel Stadium here. The official record is 29 mins. 21.2 secs. but the Czech star has run the distance in 29 mins. 2 secs. and his time is awaiting ratification. Zatopek, running a brilliantly judged race, outclassed his rivals, the pick of Europe's distance runners.

Jack Holden, 43-year-old British runner, won the gruelling Marathon to add it to his Empire Games title. He took the lead after 20 kilometres and was always in command afterwards to win by 150 yards from the Finn, Karvonen, in 2 hrs. 32 mins. 13.8 secs. The Soviet Champion, Feedesi Vanin, was third. British athletes had a good day. Besides Jack Holden's victory, Dr Frank Aaron came in fourth in the 10,000 Metres Run in the fastest field for this event ever assembled, his time for fourth place being faster than that which won second place at the London Olympic Games two years ago.

Essex Pair Puts On 126 In Opening Stand

Southend-on-Sea. Essex. Aug. 23. The Indies cricketers attracted a large crowd here today for the opening of their match with Essex. The County, lowly placed in the County Championship table, promised well with an opening stand of 126 runs but once that was broken there was a steady fall of wickets and the innings closed for 229 runs. The West Indies opening pair remained together while scoring 68 runs in an unbroken stand before stumps were drawn, and so are only 161 runs behind with all their wickets standing.

out?" naked North. "You wouldn"t have to ask such foolish questions if you ever learned how to read," Joe sneered. "When you've had a little practice spelling out simple words, I'll show you Incoby's book on the edds. He says that when you have three finesses to take, the odds are 7 to 1 against losing all three of them."

"You'd be better off," retorted North, "If you learned how to play bridge properly instead of reading so many books. But if you really like high odds, I'll bet you 100 to 1 that you could have made that hand even though all the cards were in the wrong place."

Joe didn't take the be! However, perhaps the reader may entertain himself by taking up North's challenge mentally. When Joe actually played the band, West led the queen of hearts, and Joe won with the acc. He immediately took the diamond finerses, losing to East's king. East embed the South should refuse to win the first trick. When West holds the first trick with the queen of hearts, his best play is to switch to diamonds immediately. Declarer must put up the ace of diamonds at once, (If he finesses, East wins with the king of diamonds and returns a club, whereupon South loses the contract.)

After winning the second trick with the ace of diamonds, declarer takes the trump tinesse, losing to West'n kinn. best chance is to lead another diamond to East's king. East then returns a club.

Now, however, South does not need a club finesse. He takes the ace of clubs, draws the last trumps, carlies the accof hearts, and ruffs a heart to net to dummy. Now dummy has good diamonds on which South can discard his losing clubs.
